providing safe drinking water in rural, backward and tribal areas of Maharashtra;

(b) the year-wise details of amount provided by Central Government to Maharashtra during the last three years; and

(c) the details of amount spent by Maharashtra from its own resources during the aforesaid period?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI ANNASAHEB M.K. PATIL): (a) Drinking Water Supply is a State subject, Government of India extends financial assistance to the States to supplement their efforts of taking up rural drinking water supply schemes under a Centrally Sponsored Scheme namely Accelerated Rural Water Supply Programme (ARWSP). Powers to plan, sanction, implement and execute individual rural drinking water supply schemes vest with State Governments. The details of individual drinking water schemes taken up by the States are not maintained at the Central level. In Maharashtra no Sector Reforms Project was sanctioned during the last three years. However, four Sector Reforms Projects sanctioned during 1999-2000 are continuing. Under Swajal-dhara, 782 projects were sanctioned during 2002-2003.

(b) and (c) The year wise details of amount provided by Central Government and amount spent by Maharashtra from its own resources for rural drinking water supply during the last three years are:

Year	Amount provided by Central (Rs. in Lakh)			Amount reported to be spent from State resources (Rs. in Lakh)
	ARWSP (Normal)	Sector Reform	Swajall-dhara
2000-01	16934.00	0.00	0.00	47689.23
